

Bachelor of Industrial Education Major in Industrial Arts

Program Educational Objectives

The BS Industrial Education program aims to produce industrial education teachers who have the ability to:

1. Apply technical teaching competencies in a globally competitive world.
2. Facilitate learning opportunities to meet current and emerging educational needs.
3. Apply research methodologies for the improvement of instruction.
4. Exhibit innovativeness and versatility in an ever-changing educational environment.
5. Lead in the implementation of community development program and linkages.
6. Demonstrate and practice the professional and ethical requirements of the teaching profession.

Student Outcomes

1. Effective synthesizer of organized knowledge to allow analytical and critical thinking
2. Efficient promoter and facilitator of learning to enable the learners to develop to the fullest their potential for a continuing pursuit of self-education.
3. Committed humanist whose clear understanding and appreciation of human ideals and values inspire learners to reach greater heights of human aspirations.
4. Model teacher imbued with proper work attitude and values as practiced in industry.
5. Possess positive interpersonal skills, as well as good oral and written communication skills.
6. Engage in activities that would foster personal and professional advancement.